

Proposition 10 is based on the latest information about brain development which emphasizes the key role parents and caregivers play in the development of young children. Although a wide range of individuals and institutions impact the health and well-being of young children, the role of parents is paramount. By providing children between the ages of birth and five with safe, nurturing and stimulating environments, parents and caregivers influence long-term growth and development during these important early years.

CURRENT FIRST 5 PLUMAS FUNDED PROJECTS

Project	Children are Healthy	Families are Strong	Children are Ready for School	Integrated Quality Service Systems
Early Intervention Project Grantee- Plumas Unified School District PUSD Special Education Teacher provides screenings and Early Start services for 0-3 year olds with developmental delays and home visits to their families.	√	√	√	√
Early Childhood Development Services Grantee- Jaye Bruce, ECD Consultant -Provides home visits and early childhood development services to families in coordination with other First 5 funded projects.	√	√	√	√
Early Childhood & Family Education Project Grantee- Roundhouse Council -Indian Valley served Provides early care and education services along with home visiting to Native American children ages 0-5	√	√	√	√
Family First Home Visiting Project -Grantee-Plumas County Public Health Agency-Provides nurse home visits and case management to families at risk who have children ages 0-5	√	√	√	√
Kindergarten Roundup/School Transition Grantee- Plumas Unified School District School nurse coordinates and implements Kindergarten Roundup; a contracted ECE provides School Readiness activities during K Roundup	√		√	√
Raising a Reader Program Reading book bag program utilized by First 5 funded home visitors		√	√
Parents as Teachers Program Early education through home visitation for 0-3 year olds and their families		√	√

Revised: 4-11-13 EV